

Augustine in Christian Thought, Life and Practice

A Symposium in Memory of William Harmless, S.J.

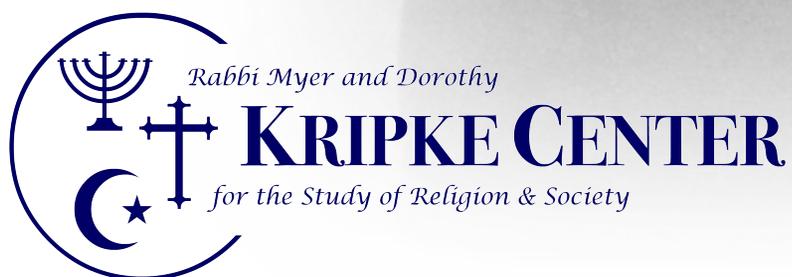

Thursday, April 7, 2016

- 8:30–9:15 Michael Cameron, “Works of Love in Augustine’s De catechizandis rudibus”
- 9:15–10:00 Paul Blowers, “Augustine on Tragic Pity and Christian Mercy”
- 10:30–11:15 Alan Fitzgerald, “Expanding the Heart: Desire as Grace”
- 11:15–12:00 Hubertus Drobner, “The ‘Rack of the Heart’ and Other Images in Augustine’s Sermons”
- 1:00–1:45 Kari Kloos, “Discernment and the Human Heart in Augustine”
- 1:45–2:30 Paul Kolbet, “Augustine, Privacy, and the Plight of the Fallen Human Heart”
- 3:00–3:45 Patout Burns, “Augustine’s Changed Interpretation of Romans 7 and his Doctrine of Inherited Sin”
- 3:45–4:30 Zachary Smith, “In Memoriam: Memory and Imitation in Augustine and Athanasius”

Friday, April 8, 2016

- 8:30–9:15 Brian Daley, “From Exemplum to Sacramentum: Augustine’s Eschatological Hermeneutic of Salvation”
- 9:15–10:00 John Kenney, “Evil and the God of Augustine”
- 10:30–11:15 Robin Jensen, “Keeping Custody of the Eyes: Dangers of the Gaze in Augustine’s Consideration of the Visual Image”
- 11:15–12:00 Stan Rosenberg, “Not so Alien and Unnatural After All: The Role of Privation and Deification in Augustine’s Sermons”
- 1:00–1:45 Nicolae Roddy, “Eastern Orthodox Perspectives on Augustine of Hippo”
- 1:45–2:30 John O’Keefe, “Augustine and the Anthropocene”

All presentations will be given in the Harper Center 3029
The symposium is free and open to the public

Center for Catholic Thought

Creighton
UNIVERSITY